A THIRD!RAILROAD.

Announcement is made of the fact that the new southern route across the continent, by which passengers may go from Sau Francisco to New York via duty bound to assist his fellow man to San Antonio, Houston, Galveston and New Orleans, is nearing completion. and preparations for the movement of passenger and freight trains are being made. The San Francisco Bulletin states that Colonel Fred Crocker, President of the Southern Pacific Railroad of Arizona and New Mexico has gone to the front to meet Charles Crocker, C. P. Huntington, Leland Stanford, and the President of the Galveston, Houston and San Antonio Railroad. The last named road is a part of the great transcontinental chain of the Southern Pacific, and the meeting in honor of the unspection of the uns ion of rails will take place in Texas a short distance east of the bend, or grand canyon of the Rio Grande. There is only a short gap to be filled in order to to cause a cold, accompanied by most complete the through line. The gradient suffering. I attributed all this to the severe work I was obliged to do the severe work I was obliged to do ing in the gap is done, the rails are on hand and the work of track-laying will be completed about the 15th instant. It is expected that the route will be open for through passenger travel on January 1, 1883. All indications point to a determination on the part of the managers entirely. At times my spirits would be of the Southern Pacific to make the light and I would feel as if I might live new transcontinental line via New Orleans and other southern cities the fa- body ache and I would be overcome vorite line of passenger travel between with a deathly sickness. THAT CONVENTION.

The Virginia Chronicle is in doubt about Nevada's necessities demanding a Constitutional Convention. The JOURNAL is opposed to the proposition. There is not the slightest need of one. Whatever changes are needed in the organic law can as well be effected by amendments, and at much less expense to the people. It would be the hight of folly to revise the Constitution in its entirety and adopt a new one, requiring years of litigation to adjudicate disputed points. Two or three amendas possible.

It is estimated that the reduction of reach $6,000,000.

AN ERRONEOUS BELIEF. How's Mistaken Theory Nearly Cost n Well-Known Minister His Life.

[Chicago Standard.] The following remarkable statement, made by a well known Baptist clergyman, besides the unusual matter of value it contains, will be found most readable and interesting:

MESSES. EDITORS: I have always believed most firmly in the brotherhood of men, and that every human being is in the fullest extent of his power. The relation, therefore, of my personal experience will, I trust, prove of benefit to many thousands in this land. My earlier years were full of health and pleasure. After the completion of my educational studies I undertook the profession of teaching, and under the severe strain to which I was subjected I gradually became reduced so that the least exposure of excitement would bring on sick headache, biliousness and general prostration. I gave up teaching tressed me and brought on heavy dullness, dizziness and often great depression of mind. A change of room, atmosphere or clothing was almost certain in the ministry, and so did not attempt to remove it. I next began to grow neryous and not that my feet were cold, while my left side and back frequently pained me. I felt a drowsy or sleepy sensation after eating, while a little ex-citement caused me to lose my appetite to a good old age, when possibly in less than an hour my head would reel, my special trouble or disease. It was more than a year from the

I thanked him for his suggestions, but shook my head sadly, for I felt that there was the subject, and finally sent my son to procure some of the medicine which had been so highly recommended. If faith were an element necessary to the success of a medicine, it certainly was lacking in this case, for I was really hopeless. Greatly to my surprise, however, I began to feel much better, and the following Sunday I was able to preach with comparative case. I continued to grow better as I continued to use the medicine, for it seemed to reach my entire system. I was able to preach, sing heartily, feel no lung troubles, and I believe I ame my life and health wholly to Wainer's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, which I consider a benefaction to

I am forced to the conclusion that very much sickness which is sepposed to originate in the lungs, arises wholly from disordered kidneys and I believe thousands of are suffering te-day and looking forward as I was, to a consumptive's grave, when their lungs are wholly sound and they might be restored to perfect health by the same means that I employed. Believing these truths and realizing their importance to the world, I come out thus openly, and say that I believe, under God, this remedy is a public ben-efaction, and I would most cordially and earnestly commend it to the world as a blessing to humanity.

The Arlington Estate Goes to the Lee Heirs.

The United States Supreme Court has decided that the Arlington estate is the property of the Lee heirs. The estate was owned by General Robert E. Lee, and was confiscated by the Government when he went into the rebellion. It is at present the site of a Government cometery, and contains the remains of several thousand Union and Confederate soldiers. The case has been in the Courts for many years.

The San Francisco Chronicle has been making comparisons between the ing. Best of patronage may be seen from the statistics of manufactures in California and other States, and thinks that the position of California while not near as high as it should be, is still very encouraging. The value of the manufactured products of that State in 1880 was $116,227,873, turned out by 5,885 establishments. The capital invested footed up $61,243,784, and the value, of the material made up was $72,607,709. The number of persons employed in these manufacturing establishments was 43,799, and their wages amounted to $21,070,585.
